DEDICATION

To the person whose enthusiasm and patience have made U-E's "Thesaurus" the annual prize-winning yearbook that it is.

After entering the doors of U-E in 1918, she became Head of the English Department in 1920. Her ability in directing plays was proven in "The Fool," "The Enemy," and "Seventeen," to mention only a few. She has been faculty adviser to many senior committees, and at one time adviser of the "Tiger," a quarterly publication. While sponsoring the Creative Writing Club, she has also been the inspiration and chief adviser of the "Thesaurus." For six consecutive years, U-E's yearbook has not fallen below a first-place rating and once achieved the Medalist rating.

To this person, who has succeeded in capturing the love and respect of all U-E, to Mrs. Edna Finch, this book is gratefully and sincerely dedicated.

"Admit me, chorus, to this history;
Who, prologue-like, your humble patience pray,
Gently to hear, kindly to judge,
our play."

—Shakespeare

The Drama of School

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women
merely players;
They have their exits and their
entrances;
And one man in his time plays
many parts. . . ."

—Shakespeare

Our stage has been U-E itself, with each hall and classroom as a dramatic setting for the plays we have enacted. We have found "opening night" excitement in our roles as sophomores and the pride of a "hit show" in our junior year. Now, as seniors, we have grown into our final parts. We have reached the climax of one of the finest plays ever produced—"The Drama of School."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mrs. Richard W. Kintzing, Mr. Robert Venner, Mr. J. Maxwell Clouse, Mrs. Anthony Christina, Jr., Mr. William Davison.

MR. PATRICK VARTULI

Supervisor of school attendance and census for the Endicott school district.

Faculty

"The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future.—Plato

No drama can be a success without the director and his guidance in the fundamentals of the theater. As we make our exits from the vast stage, we know that our success on other stages will be determined by the most patient directors of all—the faculty.

The Drama of School Life

(With apologies to Shakespeare)

All the school's a stage, and the young men and women are daily players. They have their entrances, and one student in his time plays many parts.

First the sophomores, lost in a giant building with its maze of rooms and corridors, creep unsteadily about.

Then the juniors come upon the scene, full of strange new wisdom, happy as they work and as they play.

Then the seniors play their parts—students, athletes, musicians, artists, artisans, Romeos and Juliets. Sophisticated, looking to the future, living in the present, the men and women of tomorrow.

So ends this short eventful drama, and the curtain falls to rise upon another stage.

WM. J. KRUM, JR.

The 1955 U-E Drama of School opened in September 1952. The actors, 382 strong, started their production with the required constants, their chosen major and an elective. Many of their lines were accompanied by music and sports.

During the second act of 1953-1954, many became leaders in the student council, in the school clubs, in assemblies, in athletics and in scholastic attainment.

The climax, the third act—credits earned, hopes being fulfilled, plans for continued education, obtaining gainful employment, service for country and active citizenship—culminates the season at graduation.

May this production aid the Seniors of 1955 to make wise choices and to live well.

Students in a High School may well be likened to characters in a drama. Each has his part to play. But there is a difference. Characters in a drama are chosen by a director. But students in a High School are free to choose the parts they will play not only while they are students but in the years following school.

Therefore, you should choose wisely the part you are to play. You may elect to play the part of the braggart or the show-off. This leads to disappointment and failure. Or you may elect to play the part of the honest and industrious citizen. This leads to a life of satisfaction and joy.

Yes, school is like a drama. But it is a real life drama and therefore highly important.

Seniors and Under Classmen

Our marquee shines brightly with the star of each senior, but we know now that our star billing has come through hard work, good companionship, and kindly guidance. This is the real success story of any player. "Man is his own star; and the soul that can be honest is the only perfect man."

—JOHN FLETCHER

SYRACUSE CITIZENSHIP CONTENDERS

Richard Bolsley, Patricia Eddy, Nelson Woodard, and Janet Edwards, chosen from the junior class, prepare their speeches for the Syracuse Citizenship Day.

CHRISTMAS ARTISTRY

JUNIOR OFFICERS

Ralph Titus, president; Patricia Eddy, secretary; Elnina Luizzi, vice-president.

THE JUNIORS

OUR SUPPORTING CAST

The young hopefuls, our juniors, have shown enthusiasm as they look forward to their senior year when they shall receive top billing.

Our junior class has done much to support the seniors. They have decorated for the school dances, voted for the queens, played on the winning all-star teams, elected members to the House and to the Senate, and have contributed their talents to band, orchestra, and choir.

They have proved themselves worthy of starring in next year's production.

HONOR CLASS

Miss Alderson oversees her industrious English honor class as they read their day's assignment.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

Paul Mersereau, vice-president; Angela Monaco, secretary; Frank Annese, president.

DAVE NAYLOR'S BAND

Peter Vivona, Frank Gigante, Richard DePofi, David Naylor.

THE SOPHOMORES

Since the curtain rose on their first year at U-E High, the sophomores have been a busy troupe. In recalling the past year, one of the first scenes that comes to mind is the sophomore talent show during which the juniors and seniors discovered that these new members of U-E had real ability.

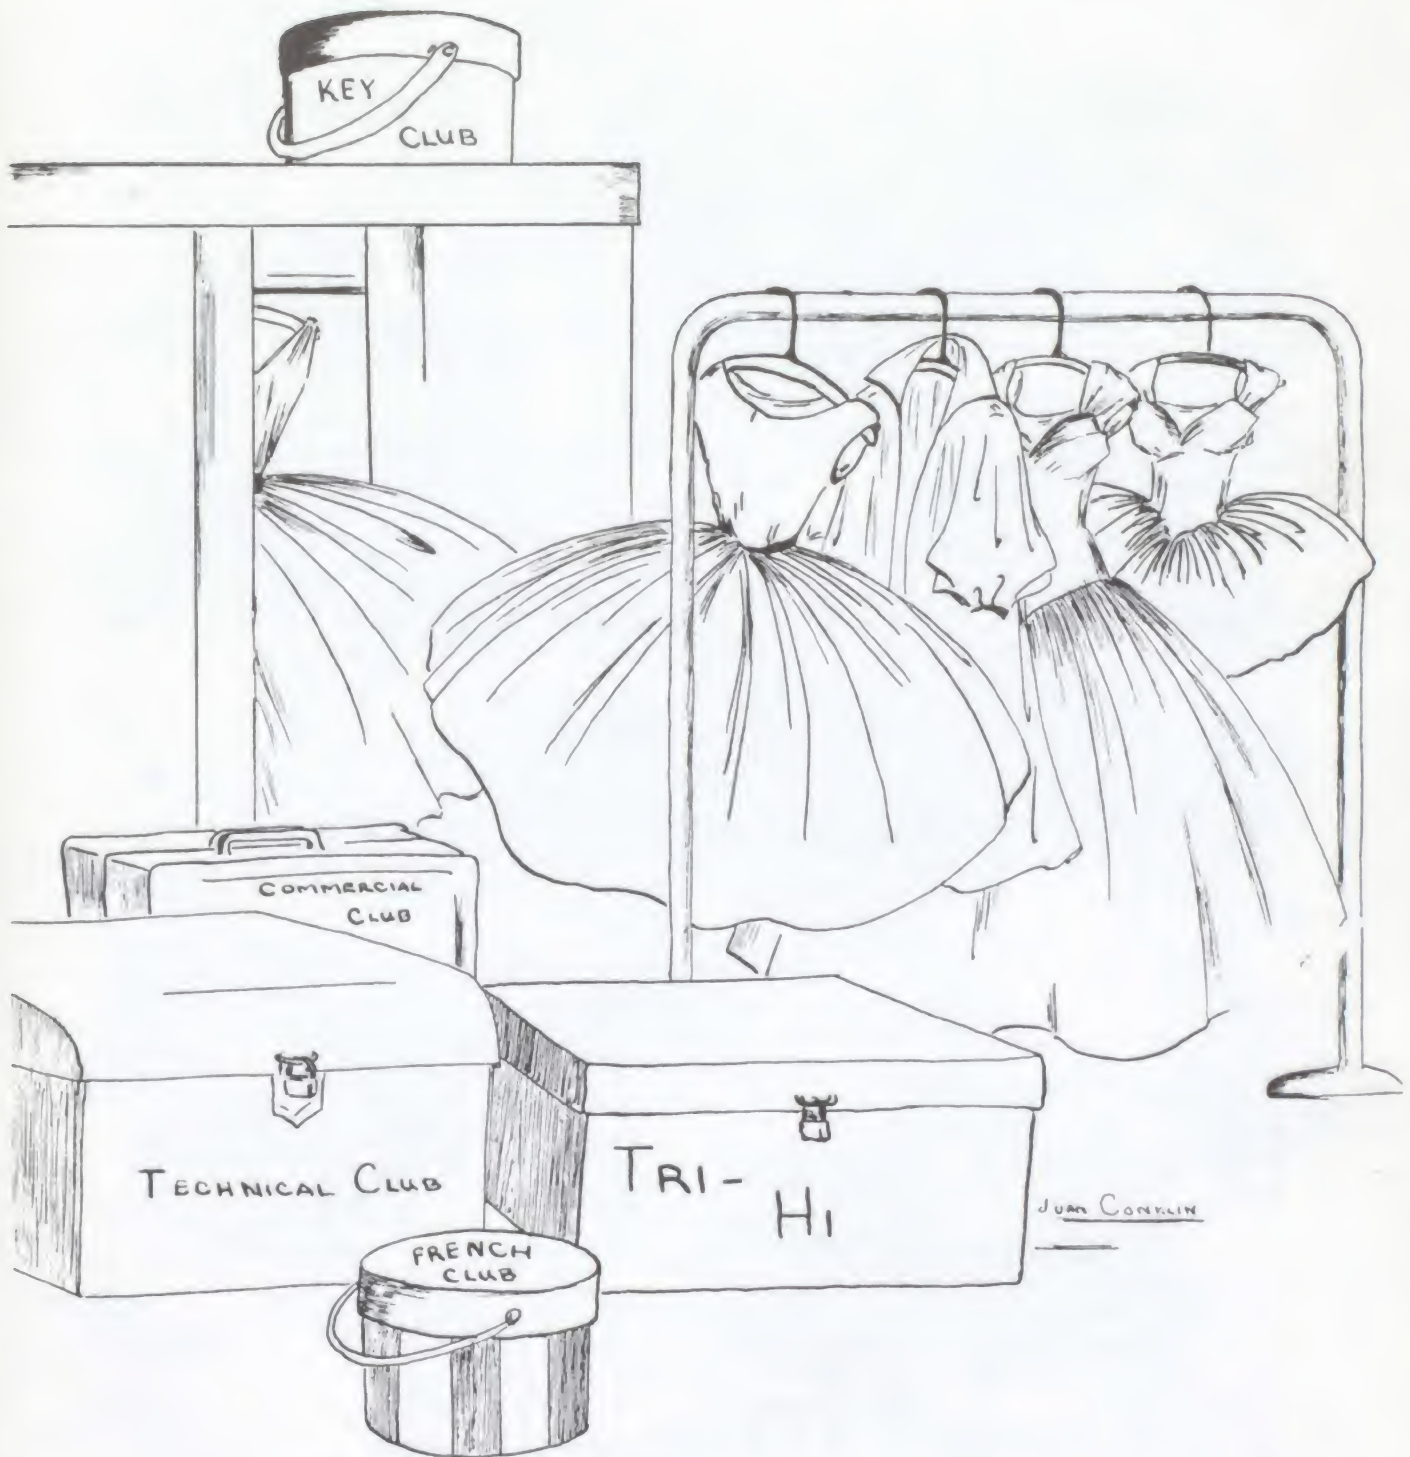

As the year progressed, they entered into the school activities with enthusiasm—the loudest cheerers at the school games, the loudest applauders in assemblies (in the eyes of the sophomores). They, also, like their upper classmen, proudly elected three class officers, who, along with their sophomore classmates, still share a common goal—to be members of the graduating class of '57.

CHRISTMAS DECORATORS

Joanne Michael, Mary Ellen Graham, Otis Wolf, William Fairchild.

STUDENT

U-E's Student Government has made a fine showing on the screen of momentous events during the '54-'55 season. There were thirty-two members of the House of Representatives, each elected from his or her homeroom. This group meets every Tuesday during the fifth period. Meeting the fifth period every Monday, the Senate, composed of twelve members from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, conducts its meetings.

These were some of the highlights from the Student Government's outstanding film production: playing host to the Southern Tier Conference for student governments, held at U-E this year; participating in a joint sponsorship of the tribute for Ty Cobb; and sponsoring a Sophomore Assembly for the benefit of the senior class. In December, the group supervised and financed the unusual Christmas decorations in front of the school.

GOVERNMENT

In the line of charity, the Council conducted a drive for needy children at Christmas, sent the U-E Dance Band on the March of Dimes Telethon in January, and continued to sponsor Emil Grobner, a European war orphan living in West Germany.

With Mr. Crooks, serving as the Council's experienced adviser, Joyce English as speaker of the House, and Michael Beirne as president of the school and head of the Senate, the Student Government also promoted good relations between U-E and other schools in the Triple Cities by holding exchange assemblies.

The Student Government production was impressive this year, one that will challenge future activities.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Second row: Gail Grimes, Sandra Lou Doster, Sheila Burns, Elaine Fillman, Wilma Dayton, Nancy Lalor, Antoinette Scrufari, Margaret Howard, Mary Lou Scrufari, Sally Salzano, Ethel Norton, Ruth Westover, Elgie Begeal.

Third row: James Thorne, Katherine Ann McCabe, Marilyn Snover, Alice Alderman, Ronald Naylor, William Wood, Paul Koutoukas, Joyce Brown, Charlotte Schnell, John Danton.

The members of the Junior Red Cross, which is under the direction of Mrs. Vartuli, were very active in different projects throughout the year. First, the members elected their officers: Jovina Vincelli, president; Fai Mai Quon, vice-president; Gail Weikle, secretary; Jack Benjamin, treasurer; and Mary Joan Rought, publicity chairman.

The first enterprising project of the Club was its annual membership drive contest for the entire school. Miss Vogelgsang's room, 110, won this contest for the second consecutive year.

During the Christmas season, the Club sponsored a party for needy children and also donated a sum of money to be used for veterans' Christmas gifts.

The Club's annual Sadie Hawkins Day dance, which is anticipated by the students each year, was a great success.

Later in the year, the Club sent a chest of toys, school supplies, and personal items to needy children abroad.

The Junior Red Cross members felt, that through charitable projects like these, they were serving their school and their country as well.

CREATIVE WRITING

The smallest organization, the Creative Writing Club, was held together by a few faithful students.

Informal meetings without elected officers were held twice a month. The "Five Loyalists" discussed books and writings of already famous authors. The future writers put their creative ability on paper in forms of poetry, plays, word pictures, and short stories.

Carrying on the tradition of U-E's Creative Writing Club are: Harry Koutoukas, Sharon Brown, James Warner, Paul Koutoukas, Carol Barnes.

FRENCH CLUB

Standing: Carol King, Sandra Dyer, Mary Lano, Joyce English, Anne Fitch, Sue Sturzenegger, Celeste Maggiore, Frank Hoffman, LeRoy Wilce, Margaret Cahill, Janet Edwards, Sheila Krellen, Louisa McConnell.

Le Cercle Francais, as the members of the U-E French Club call their organization, had a very industrious '54-'55 season. Meetings were held bi-monthly on Tuesdays after school. In the fall of '54, the group of approximately thirty-five members, composed of French students or those who had taken French, elected the following officers: president, Susan Murray; vice-president, Barbara Welsh; secretary, Lois Rappaport, and treasurer, Georgia Machotka.

Under the experienced guidance of Miss Janet Mealy, the Club planned many activities dealing with France, although French has never been spoken at the meetings. In November, Dr. H. Guilak from Iran, an interne at Binghamton City Hospital, spoke to the group in French on "La Vie des Etudiants Francais." Mrs. Giselle Weldon, a war bride from France, gave the members a little of the feeling of a French Christmas when she spoke on "Noel en France" at a December meeting. Also, in December, the group sent money for a CARE package to France, and later received many answers from the grateful recipients.

Combining a Valentine's Day and a café theme, the Club held its fourth annual "Café de Paris" dance in February. As the final event of the season, there was the annual banquet in the spring. All concerned felt that through these energetic activities, they were enjoying social functions and learning more about France and its customs.

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish is a modern language, and it was this fact that made the members of the U-E Spanish Club establish their goal—to promote a better understanding of the language they were studying. A CARE package sent to Spain helped to carry out this goal, since the members were promoting friendship with the very people that speak the language.

Although there were fewer members than in past years, during the year all were eager to see the numerous movies on Spain. Throughout the meetings, the club benefited from the help of the elected officers: president, Patricia Eddy; vice-president, Patricia Havrilka; secretary, Margie Powell; treasurer, John Sterling.

The highlight of the Spanish Club's season was the annual spring dance, flavored with Spanish atmosphere. However, none of these activities could have been carried out without the fine supervision of Mr. Zonio.

KEY CLUB

Seated, left to right: Donald Piatt, Michael Colella, David Wheeler, Richard Klotz, Patrick O'Brien, Robert Humphreys, William Cunningham, James Cahill.

Second row: Joseph Funari, Thomas Cullen, Nelson Woodard, Ronald Terpak, Douglas Hoagland, William Solomon, William Collins, Donald Mattison.

All members of the Key Club, a Kiwanis-sponsored organization, can feel proud of belonging to such a worth-while group.

To be chosen for membership in the Key Club, one must be recommended by the faculty and must have attained a high standard in scholarship and citizenship. These qualifications are high, as they should be for the completion of the Club's many activities. Among these activities are: ushering at school functions, assisting at fire drills, and presenting an assembly program.

None of these projects could have been successful this year without the assistance of Mr.

HONORED

David Stevens was elected secretary of New York State Key Clubs.

Thurber, faculty adviser, and Mr. Kenneth Leiseur, Kiwanis Chairman of Committee on Key Club.

Each Monday, two Kiwanis members attend a luncheon at U-E to maintain a more personal friendship between the two organizations; and in turn each Tuesday, two alternate Key Club members attend Kiwanis meetings at the Hotel Frederick.

This year, the officers of the Key Club were: president, Patrick O'Brien; vice-president, Richard Klotz; secretary, Charles Bradt; sergeant at arms, David Wheeler; and treasurer, Robert Humphreys.

SENIOR LATIN CLUB

Second row: Joyce Haynes, Susan Murray, Joyce Jurczak, Georgia Machotka, Ethel Harmon, Avis Reines, Marian Lesko, Ann Brennan.

The Senior Latin Club, an enterprising group of some thirty members in the '54-'55 season, devoted its time to fewer but more comprehensive meetings than in past years. Under Miss Hollister's direction, the group learned more about Rome, its people, and the writers that contributed to the Latin language. From the members, composed of Virgil (fourth year), Cicero (third year), and former Cicero students, the elected officers were: consul, James Warner; tribune, Ann Brennan; aediles, William Solomon and Susan Murray.

At different meetings held monthly, interesting themes were carried out such as: "The Feast of the Lupercal," "The Ides of March," and "The Birthday of Rome." Several members gave informal talks on "The Life of Virgil," "Cupid and Psyche," and "The Life of Caesar." Through good times and stimulating meetings, the Senior Latin Club learned that Latin can be fun.

ITALIAN CLUB

The members of the Italian Club found that they could help their study of the Italian language and also make it more enjoyable by participating in the various activities of their Club. While Mr. Zonio aptly directed the group, the members carried out the main project of the year—the annual Italian Club dance. Also, the organization's picnic at the end of the year was a fine finale to the season.

With Michael Colella, president; Clyde Willis, vice-president; Christina Cannavino, secretary; and Connie Baldoni, treasurer, the enterprising group carried out these social projects, which made the year more successful for all concerned.

TRI-HI CLUB

This year Tri-Hi Club, under the guidance of its founder, Miss Mersereau, has had its usual successes. The first order of business of the 300 members was the election of the Club's officers. The girls elected were: Connie Baldoni, president; Elnina Luizzi, vice-president; Gail Piatt, secretary; Janet Edwards, treasurer; and Christiana Cannavino, reporter.

As in years past, Tri-Hi successfully sponsored three big dances: the Thanksgiving Dance, the Christmas Formal, and the Spring Formal.

The sports activities, which are conducted by Tri-Hi girls, have again been met with great favor. These activities include swimming, bowling, and archery.

Two groups of girls traveled to New York City this spring. These girls had an immensely enjoyable time visiting the various sites of interest in New York and seeing stage productions on Broadway.

A new project for Tri-Hi girls this year was the donating of Christmas gifts to the children of the Susquehanna Valley Home. These gifts, which included school supplies, were greatly appreciated by the children.

Tri-Hi is definitely one of our most enterprising clubs.

OFFICERS

Seated: Connie Baldoni, president.
Standing, left to right: Christina Cannavino, reporter; Gail Piatt, secretary; Janet Edwards, treasurer; Elnina Luizzi, vice-president.

 Absent: Carol Burns.

TRI-HI MERMAIDS

Janet Edwards, Marlene Haycook, Sue Sturzenegger, Carole Hanafin, Patricia Hanley, Anine Waples.

BOWLING

Mary Jane Roosa, Maureen Thayne, Sharon Brown, Janet Thayne.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Seated, left to right, are the officers: Barbara Russell, vice-president; Diana Selle, sergeant-at-arms; Mary Brazill, secretary; Sheila McDonald, treasurer; Sandra Russell, reporter.

By preparing members for their busy roles as homemakers of the future, the Future Homemakers of America, formerly the Friendship Club, had an active year. Under the guidance of Miss Coveney, the members chose the Club's officers: Betty Campbell, president; Barbara Russell, vice-president; Mary Mullen, secretary; Sheila McDonald, treasurer; Sandra Russell, reporter; and Diana Selle, sergeant-at-arms.

Later in the year, the members held a bake sale to raise funds. Of great enjoyment to both members and guests was a Valentine Party held for the entertainment of small children.

Experiences like these, in which all girls of the Club took part, enabled the members to give U-E and America pride in their future homemakers.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Future Farmers of America, the first Club to organize at U-E, has always been one of the school's most active organizations.

The purpose of the Club is to teach its members parliamentary procedure and to develop their ability in confronting and solving agricultural problems.

The Future Farmers took an active part in judging contests at Delhi and Morrisville.

The members sponsored a pancake supper and sold seeds and Christmas cards. They will also attend the State and National Conventions. A trip to The College of Agriculture at Cornell University is also being planned.

Their motto is: "Doing to Learn; Earning to Live; Living to Serve."

The officers were: Roger Ward, president; Kenneth Baldwin, vice-president; Kenneth Robinson, secretary; Albert Fagnoli, treasurer; Richard Seeley, reporter; and Elwin Rivenburg, sentinel.

LIBRARY CLUB

Seated, left to right: Joan Mikolowski, Donna Pierce, Patricia Queiser, Mary Saraceno, Nancy Holland, Angela Barbara.

With Miss Sick expertly guiding the group, the Library Club, as usual, learned the fundamentals of library work. The Club elected the following officers in order to further their projects: Patricia Queiser, president; Donna Pierce, vice-president; Marilyn Harper, secretary-treasurer.

During the year, the members held a Christmas party at Miss Sick's home and also made the Christmas season brighter with colorful decorations for the Library.

As the year ended, the members felt that they had helped the school by their fine efforts in library work and had also helped Miss Sick in keeping the library efficient and interesting.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

First row, left to right: Carol Podest, Christina Cannavino, Patricia Nagle, Barbara Casterline, Diane Pennell, Josephine Yarema, Lorraine Bell.

Second row: Judith Armstrong, Helen Pipta, Lucille Pero, Barbara Kraycovic, Josephine Manoli, Nanda Lockwood, Darlene Avery, Ellen Moran, Alice Szczepanski, Jacqueline O'Neil, Joan Gallagher, Lois Martin, Carol Watson.

Thirty-six business-minded girls, all of whom were taking a business course, comprised U-E's Commercial Club during the past year. The purpose of the organization is to get the girls acquainted with business methods and business offices. During the year, the Club took trips to business offices and had guest speakers come to talk to the girls in order that they might learn what is expected of them in an office job. Two guest speakers were: Miss Agnes McCulloch of the Personnel Department of I.B.M. and Miss Gertrude Collins of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

With Barbara Casteline, president; Patricia Nagle, secretary; Diane Pennell, treasurer, and Miss Kniskern's experienced supervision, the girls gained much through their interesting projects. Because of the fine background that the U-E Commercial Club has provided, businesses can be proud to have these girls as part of their organizations.

TECHNICAL CLUB

Mr. Klett congratulates Joseph Giallo and Richard Starr, who were selected by the technical teachers as most likely to succeed in technical work.

Joseph Giallo, the first place winner, received a Tool Engineer's handbook from the Southern Tier Section of the American Society of Tool Engineers.

Richard Starr, second place winner, was awarded a $5 prize by the Technical Club of U-E.

Mr. Longwell congratulates Joseph Giallo after Joseph was presented a First National prize of $100 in a machine shop division of Ford Industrial Arts Awards contest. His winning project was a compound punch and die set, built in a senior machine shop class.

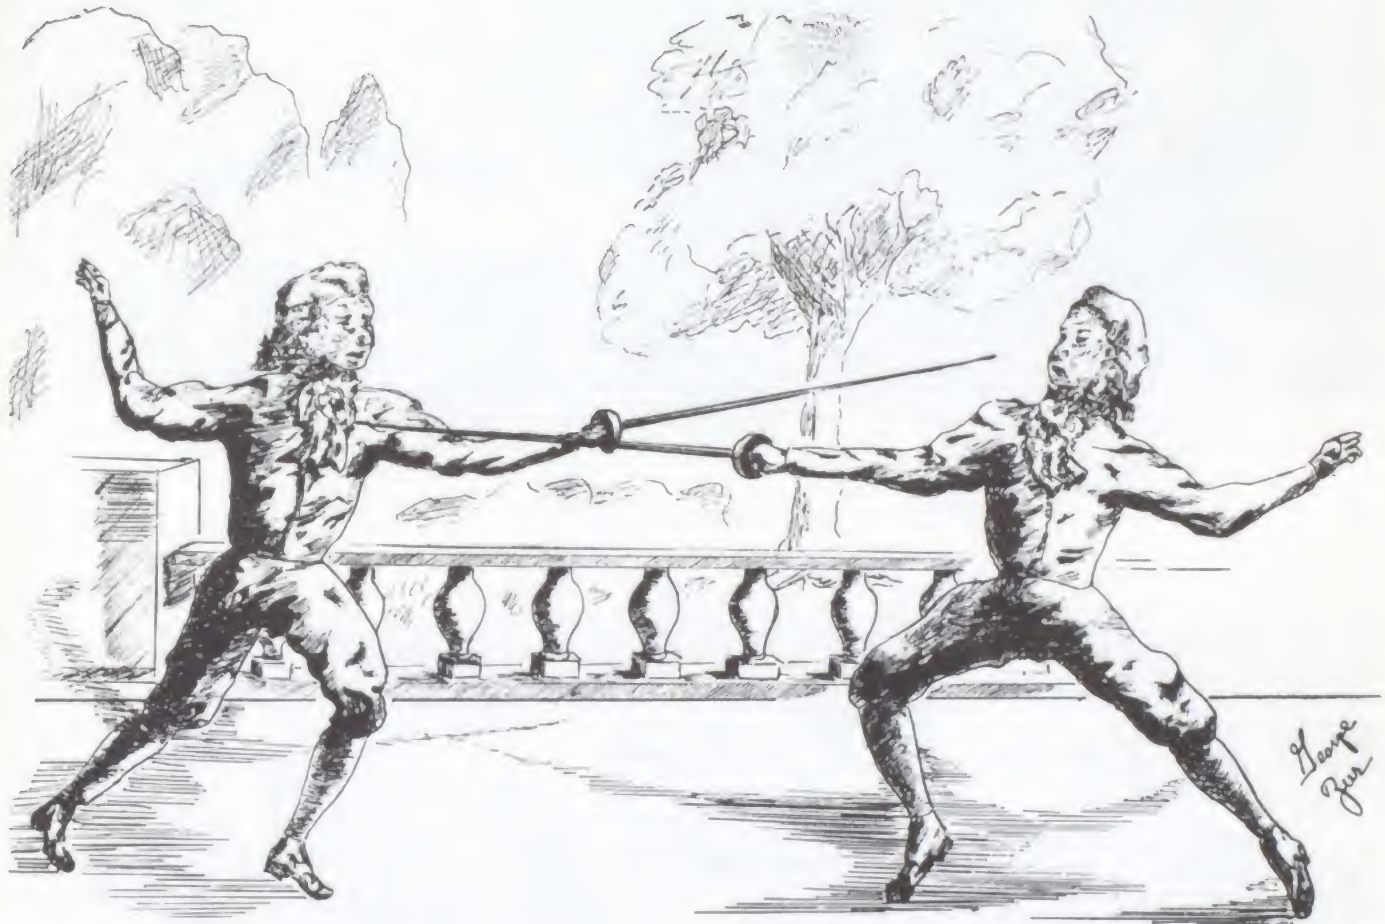

The award was presented in the I.B.M. school at a meeting of the I.B.M. Apprentice Club. Certificates were also earned by: Alfred Mast-rangelo, honorable mention for a machine shop 11 project; Paul Komar, honorable mention for a machine shop 1 project and an honorable mention for a drawing project.

First row: Mr. Woodruff, Joseph Vivona, Robert Lorence, John Garthner, Robert Seniska, treasurer; Joseph Funari, president; Kenneth Jones, vice-president; Edward deVente, David Mayes, Earl Swindler, Ronnie Guarnieri.

Athletics

There is drama in the mighty roar of a cheering crowd and in a beautiful run by a quarterback. There is as much drama in a foul shot and a track meet at U-E as in a fencing scene from "Hamlet" or "Romeo and Juliet." That is why sports are like the swiftly flowing action of any play, with just as much comedy and tragedy. A game at U-E is:

"One hour or life, crowded to the full with glorious action, and filled with noble risks."—Walter Scott

ATHLETIC ADVISORY COUNCIL

David Wheeler, Janet Edwards, Miss Pitkin, Mr. Cobb, Dr. Krum, Mr. Forbes, Peter Sylvester, Miss McDougall, Joyce English.

COACHES

The Orange Tornado of U-E proclaimed again by many sports authorities as "the team to beat for the conference title," unfortunately did not come up to these early predicted expectations. But the '54 team will be remembered as one of the heaviest teams in conference history. With a line averaging about two hundred pounds per man, the team proved to be one of the most feared throughout the Conference. U-E soon became known as a powerful team, consisting of a massive line and a very speedy and shifty backfield.

Although U-E had quarterbacking problems during the season, "Ty" Cobb made a skillful rearrangement of the backfield; and the team progressed in a satisfactory manner, completing the season with a record of five wins and three losses.

George Matola, Tony Ciaravino, and Ralph Weiland, under the guidance of Peter Sylvester, made gain after gain against opposing teams; and it was gains such as these that enabled U-E to capture third place in the Southern Tier Conference.

The "Tigers" proceeded in the following fashion: Elmira Free Academy 6, U-E 28; North 7, U-E 39; Vestal 13, U-E 0; Johnson City 13, U-E 12; Utica Proctor 0, U-E 14; Elmira South Side 0, U-E 38; Ithaca 20, U-E 6; Binghamton Central 0, U-E 6.

George Matola was chosen the most improved player of the year, and Tony Ciaravino and Dick Hover won positions on the All-Southern Tier Conference team.

"Ty" Cobb has once again produced a team with a fighting heart and undying spirit.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

First row: Dino Paparella, John Giammichele, Peter Battaglini, John Rose, David Bradt, Ed Brigham, Bob Wiggins, Craig Briggs, Mel Saddlemire, John Garthner.

Displaying much enthusiasm and ability, the U-E "J.V.'s" ended a hard-fought season with an impressive record of three wins and only one loss. Losing only to Binghamton North, the Junior Varsity defeated Vestal, Johnson City, and Binghamton Central.

"WE WANT A TOUCHDOWN"

Tony Ciaravino breaks away from U-E's opposing team to head his way down the field for a touchdown.

"MOST IMPROVED PLAYER"

"Ty" Cobb, Richard Offenheimer and Walter Crotsley congratulate George Matola for receiving "Most Improved Player" award at the Kiwanis football dinner.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

U-E's basketball forces, reputed to be the only real threat to the supremacy of Binghamton Central, turned in a rather disappointing (8-9) record.

The season began on a bright note as Coach Goodfellow's boys rode roughshod over the Elmira Free Academy Blue Devils. In their next Conference game, the Orange Tornado set a blistering pace against the Central Bulldogs in the first quarter but fizzled in the later stages of the contest to lose by 16 points.

After their loss to Central, U-E had an in-and-out record. The Orange never stopped trying, however. They provided their loyal rooters with plenty of action. Coach Goodfellow maintained the U-E tradition of aggressive sportsmanlike basketball.

"SHOOT 'EM HIGH"

Bill Coughlin makes a neat jump in his efforts to get an extra two points against Elmira Free Academy.

"CONGRATULATIONS"

Coach "Barney" Goodfellow offers his congratulations to the '55 captain, Pete Sylvester.

JUNIOR-VARSITY BASKETBALL

Second row: Michael English, Bernard Ivan, Patrick Calleo, Frank Annese, Ronald Green.

The J. V. team played many exciting and hard-fought games during the 1954-55 campaign. They placed second in the Eastern Division while compiling a very respectable record of 10 wins and 5 losses.

Next year much of this team will be returning to play varsity basketball.

BOWLING

With but one match left to play, the bowling team, under Paul McCormack, is sporting a respectable record of twelve wins out of twenty-one games.

The team started off slowly this year but gained momentum as the season progressed. In spite of a recent loss to first place Johnson City, the team is looking forward to a good showing at the interschool tournament on March 26.

First row, left to right: Lawrence Barton, Richard Durfee, Leon Carpenter, Robert Drum, Andrew Ripic, David McDonald, Stewart Bowen.

TRACK

Second row: Tom Cullen, Bryant Wood, Bob Osborne, Kyrle Isenburg, Dick Wells, Bob Seniska, Jack Lawton, Pat Calleo, Mike Colella, George Zur, Joe Brill.

The 1954 team displayed its supremacy with an undefeated season, scoring victories over J. C., Central, Ithaca, and Vestal in dual meets and defeating Elmira South Side, Elmira Free Academy, and J. C. in the Quadrangular Meet. The Tiger "thin-clads" also emerged the victor in both the Triple Cities Meet and the Section IV Meet at Cornell. The Endicotters netted 41 points in the Sectionals as the second place team; Central had only 14. Bob Neira, Bob Osborne, Ralph Weiland, Paul DePaolo, Bryant Wood, Dick Hover, Bill Ivan and Dick Wells were U-E's main "point-getters."

"LEADING THEM ALL"

Bill Ivan is the first arrival at the finish line in the 440-yard run followed by one J. C. opponent and a host of U-E tracksters.

"FLOATING ON AIR"

Paul DePaolo leads Gabe Sochor and Vestal's Bob Velie in the hurdles event in a dual meet at En-Joie.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Second row: Mike D'Aloisio, Vince Colapietro, Ed Henneman, Tony Ciaravino, Bob Walters, Fran Fetsko, Gene Marsh, Tony Pero, Coach "Ty" Cobb, Pete Sylvester.

The U-E baseball nine, although their record of 6 wins to 5 losses was not impressive, displayed their determination and desire to win in all 11 games of the season. The fine hitting of Don Mundell and the superb pitching of Norm England led the "Tigers" to second place in the Eastern Division of the Southern Tier Conference.

As all but a few of this year's squad will be leaving, the major portion on next year's team will be comprised of former "J. V.'s."

JUNIOR-VARSITY BASEBALL

First row, left to right: Angelo J. Bontempo, Gordon Holland, Charles Mulesky, Gary Bosket, George Fenstermacher, Charles Nicholas, Charles Bradt, Richard Battista, David Bradt.

Second row: Thomas Hopko, Charles Talcott, Peter Battaglini, Arthur Riegel, Coach Hamilton, Robert Butchko, Bruce Hamilton, Ronald Thayne, Cramer Harrington.

The 1954 baseball season was the second year that U-E fielded a J. V. team, but the team played well and compiled a record of six wins and four losses. The wins included: Ithaca, Cortland, Vestal, North, and two against Johnson City. The losses were to Vestal, North, and two to Central.

With this fine start, Coach Maurice Hamilton is looking forward to even greater success in the future J. V. teams.

CROSS COUNTRY

First row: Ray Parkes, Vince Fiori, Bob Osborne, William Brunner, Paul Lucas, Anthony Annese.
 Second row: Mark Dittrich, Mario Sylvester, Bob Butchko, Nick Florini, Tom Wickizer.
 Third row: Coach Theodore Conwicke, John March, Tim Horan, John Breno, Doug Shea, Paul Rizzato.

The "green" cross country team had a fair season, winning one of its three dual meets. Bob Osborne was the only returning letterman, while the remaining harriers consisted of new recruits from the sophomore and freshman classes.

At the Vestal Invitational Meet at I.B.M., U-E placed fourth in a field of eleven teams.

At the Triple Cities Meet, U-E finished second to a superb Vestal squad.

Osborne, one of the five U-E representatives to the state meet in Schenectady, placed seventeenth in a field of 198 contestants.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

First row: Hobart Serafini, Charles Nicholas, Mike Colella, Tom Cullen, Pat O'Brien, Ronnie Mrva.
 Second row: Bob Parke, Gerry Butchko, Walt Ford, Dick Klotz, Don Pullano, Tom Dayton, Ken McDavid.

U-E's Volleyball team had compiled a record when the Thesaurus went to press. Although their record was mediocre, the boys represented U-E with good sportsmanship in all of their matches. Their record was 13 games won, 11 lost.

GOLF

"THE SWING OF THINGS"

First row, kneeling: Coach Nick DiNunzio, Ronald Terpak, Gary Toulson, Leroy Shearer.
Second row: Henry Shearer, Dominic Putrino, Franklin Sinclair.

U-E'S GOLFING CHAMP

Ronald Terpak won the New York State schoolboy championship with medalist honors in 1954.

The golf squad's string of 50 consecutive victories was ended during the 1954 season by Johnson City. Nevertheless, they boasted a fine season, by taking first place in the Southern Tier Conference tournament for the fourth straight year; also, the Sectionals for the fourth consecutive year; and by placing second in the State Intersectional tournament held at En-joie Golf Course.

Adding to the team's glory were Ronald Terpak and Gary Toulson, who traveled to Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Baltimore, Maryland, respectively, to compete in National tournaments.

"TY" COBB DAY

"A TOKEN OF APPRECIATION"

Co-captain Pete Barbara presents a gift to Coach Cobb from the team for his great work for the past thirty-five years.

"TO A GRAND LADY"

Co-captain Ralph Weiland presents a floral tribute from the team to Mrs. Cobb.

"CAPTAINS ALL"

Not part of "Ty" Cobb Day, but nevertheless one of the events that helped make it, is this congratulatory handshake between '53 captains, Bob Daglio and Joe Barbara, and '54 captains, Ralph Weiland and Pete Barbara, as "Ty" looks on.

On Thanksgiving Day, Coach Harold "Ty" Cobb fielded his thirty-fifth U-E football team.

During the first two quarters of play, the U-E Tornado and the Central Bulldogs battled to a scoreless tie.

Between halves, the U-E Marching Band traced the highlights of Mr. Cobb's career from his Maine boyhood through the marriage of Mr. Cobb and his lovely wife, Mrs. Helen Cobb.

Half-time ceremonies reached a climax when Mr. Cobb entered the stadium to receive his well-deserved acclaim from the alumni, students, and faculty of U-E. Mr. Raymond Mills, a U-E alumnus, presented a silver loving cup from the U-E alumni; Michael Beirne, a set of fine leather luggage from the U-E student body. Joyce English presented a floral bouquet to Mrs. Cobb. Charles F. Johnson, president of Endicott-Johnson, sent congratulations to Mr. Cobb in recognition of his thirty-five years of service to the youth of the community.

To make "Ty" Cobb Day a complete success, the U-E Tigers pulled out a close (6-0) victory over Central.

"THE GREAT DAY IS HERE"

Coach Cobb receives a silver loving cup at the Thanksgiving Day half-time ceremonies.

"HE DID IT AGAIN"

The game is over, U-E has won, and faithful "fans" and team members carry "Ty" off the field in gratitude for his thirty-five years of successful coaching.

GIRLS' SPORTS

"WELCOME TO U-E"

Miss Heffner and Mrs. Brown smile to the welcome that U-E has given them in their sports activities.

This year two new faces have brightened up the girls' gym. They are the faces of the new gym teachers, Mrs. Anne Brown and Miss Irene Heffner. Under their guidance, the girls have participated in such sports as hockey, soccer, basketball, and deck tennis.

Besides teaching so many girls in such a variety of sports, Mrs. Brown and Miss Heffner acted as advisers to the girls' Leaders' Club—Mrs. Brown, head of the senior leaders, and Miss Heffner of the junior leaders.

In December of '54, the U-E Choir helped to promote community spirit by singing at the lighting of our town's Christmas tree and by making a radio broadcast of Christmas carols.

Later, the Choir presented a concert on March 25 of '55, at which the members sang "Songs of America" by Ringwald. This album contains selections from famous American poems dealing with our country's history from Columbus to the birth of Lincoln. The songs were staged and pantomimed by the Glee Club, sung by the Choir, and directed by Mrs. Hughes. During the school year, the Choir sang at Kiwanis, Rotary, and Lions' Auxiliary clubs—a traditional project of the group.

For the U-E Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Stahl, 1955 proved to be a very industrious and musical year. In January, the enterprising musicians gave a concert at the George W. Johnson School. The program included: "March Hongroise" by Berlion; "Kaiser Waltz" by Strauss; "Misirlou" (a beguine) by Roubanis; "First Concerto in D for Violin" by Seitz, which featured Nancy Bidwell as soloist; "Promenade" by Anderson; "Finiculi Finicula" by Denza (arranged by Lang); and "Bacchanale" from "Samson and Delilah" by Saint Saens.

In addition, the sound of an orchestra was analyzed for the young audience. To achieve this, individual instruments played the same few measures. Each choir of similar instruments then played these measures, and finally all tones were combined for the sound of a full orchestra.

On March 25, the orchestra participated in another concert which was given in conjunction with the Choir and Dance Band. The program included many of the above pieces as well as "Overture to Stradella" by Flotow, "American Salute" by Gould, "Stormy Weather" by Kochler and Arlen, and "Star Dust" by Carmichael. A similar program was presented late in May at the Jennie F. Snapp Junior High School.

The horns sounded, the drums resounded, and excellent music came forth at each of the Concert Band's successful concerts this year. Traditionally, the Concert Band, under the fine direction of Mr. Ostling, forms after the Marching Band disbands at the close of the football season. This year, there were approximately eighty-five musicians in the Concert Band.

The group's first performance was in March at the George F. Johnson School. Then, in April, individual band members displayed their talents in the competitive All-State music contests.

However, May was the big month for the Concert Band, as the members participated in "Band night," a grand musical festival for all Endicott school bands from elementary grades to high school. Trumpet soloist, Aldo Borromei, gave a rendition of "Jota Méndez" by Méndez at this concert.

These fine musical events, as well as performances at various junior high schools in the area, gave the members of the Concert Band a real pride in being musicians of U-E.

HEADING THE PROCESSION

Woodruff Gaul, LeRoy Miller, Duane Beavan, Anthony Pittarelli.

Applause is in order for those persons connected with the band who never blow a horn or beat a drum.

Marching in front at every game, holding high the flags of our country and our school, are the two color bearers and their guards. Little tribute is ever paid to them, but a band is not a band without them.

In front, stepping high and directing with a skillful arm, is the drum major. His waving baton keeps the notes golden and the beat steady.

The guidance of "the top three" keeps our band giving "top" performances. Their planning, their directing, and their determination are as important to the band as the music itself.

MUSICAL VARIETY

OUTSTANDING MUSICIANS

35 YEARS

It's the number 35 for "Ty's" years of service.

"GIRL OF MY DREAMS"

A heart for Mrs. Cobb.

At the Thanksgiving Day football game in the U-E Stadium, the band honored our football coach, "Ty" Cobb with a special demonstration entitled, "Memories."

Playing "The Stein Song," the band formed a huge M representing Mr. Cobb's alma mater, the University of Maine.

A formation of a soldier with his gun and the melody, "You're in the Army Now," symbolized his army days in World War I.

"On, Old U-E" was the musical background for the formation, "TY." A heart formed to the tune of "Girl of My Dreams" was a reminder of "Ty's" first years in Endicott, when he married Miss Helen Buckley.

The letters, WLT, formed on the field by the band, summarized "TY's" record of the games won, lost, and tied. The appropriate music was "Sometimes I'm Happy; Sometimes I'm Blue" and "I'm Sitting on Top of the World."

In conclusion, the band formed a large "35" while they played "Auld Lang Syne" as a tribute to "Ty" Cobb for his thirty-five years of service at U-E.

REUNION

"Ty" Cobb Day is "Old Home Day" for these former Fife and Drum Corps players.

Mr. Forbes' chemistry students carefully prepare dangerous experiments.

"DOUBLE, DOUBLE, TOIL AND TROUBLE; FIRE BURN AND CAULDRON BUBBLE"

"Macbeth"

The girls' cooking class tries out with success a new molded salad.

"STRIVE MIGHTILY, BUT EAT AND DRINK AS FRIENDS"

"The Taming of the Shrew"

Members of homeroom 110 enjoy the spoils after coming in first in the Red Cross membership drive.

"DAUGHTERS OF THE GAME"

"Troilus and Cressida"

The girls of Leaders' Club maintain a profitable business during football games.

"BAIT THE HOOK WELL;
THIS FISH WILL BITE"

"Much Ado About Nothing"

Gwen Laubouseur, second prize winner in the Triple Cities Baking Contest, demonstrates one step in catching a husband as Miss Coveney and Sylvia Hollenbeck look on.

"I HEARD A BUSTLING RUMOR
LIKE A FRAY"

"Julius Caesar"

Conversation rapidly flies back and forth during the three-minute passing period.

"TO BE OR NOT TO BE;
THAT IS THE QUESTION"

"Hamlet"

Dr. James Wilmoth, head of the science department of Harpur College, and Dr. H. W. Norris, veterinarian, talk to Mr. White's "ag" boys during a Career Day meeting.

"A HEAVY SUMMONS LIES LIKE LEAD UPON ME"

"Macbeth"

A deathly silence falls upon this class as Mr. Hattsell is called to send some fortunate soul to the office.

"WHERE SMALL EXPERIENCE GROWS"

"The Taming of the Shrew"

Mr. Becker's boys learn how to operate these machines with skill and precision.

"WHAT HASTE LOOKS THROUGH HIS EYES"

"Macbeth"

These senior boys dress hurriedly to gain every last minute for after school sports.

"THERE'S SOMETHING IN THE WIND"

"Comedy of Errors"

Dick Klotz, Sandra McVannon, Walter Ford, and Anita Baer read up on the current school events.

"EYE OF NEWT, AND TOE OF
FROG, WOOL OF BAT, AND TONGUE OF DOG"

"Macbeth"

The boys' cooking class tries out a new recipe and eagerly awaits to sample the results.

"THE STRENGTH OF TWENTY MEN"

"Romeo and Juliet"

U-E's famous "Tigers" are in a huddle while the coaches give signals for a victory.

"SPORT ROYAL"

"Twelfth-Night"

The football coaches discuss the possibilities of this year's team.

"I HAD A THING TO SAY"
"King John"

The "Zephyr" staff gets together to plan another excellent publication.

"BEWARE THE IDES OF MARCH"
"Julius Caesar"

Robert Humphreys, Carol Barnes, Susan Murray, and James Warner look over past "Thesaurus" awards as they plan for the March 15 deadline when the '55 edition goes to press.

"UPRIGHT AS THE CEDAR"
"Love's Labour's Lost"

James Cuddy, Barbara Silway, William Ivan, Carolyn Bierly, Acton Ostling, Paul Bochnak, Carlo Evangelisti, and Virginia Havrilka were the speakers at the June '54 commencement.

"SOME OF US WILL SMART FOR IT"
"Much Ado About Nothing"

Mr. Woodward and Mrs. Cobb write down the names of U-E's tardy and msichievous students.

"THE VOLUME OF MY BRAIN"
"Hamlet"

Commander Floyd Walters of the American Legion Post 82 presents James Cuddy with a second prize award as Theresa Monaco patiently waits for her first prize award.

"I HAVE NO SUPERFLUOUS LEISURE"

"Measure for Measure"

School nurse, Miss Lesko, and Dr. Mallory patiently attended to all the serious ills of U-E's pupils.

"AT MY FINGERS' ENDS"

"Twelfth Night"

Transcription class proves to be a very important step in the lives of these girls.

"GOOD COUNSELORS LACK NO CLIENTS"

"Measure for Measure"

Mrs. Panasuk takes down important notes about scholarships as counselors, Mr. Agone, Miss Mersereau, and Mr. Popelka dictate.

"FOR I AM NOTHING
IF NOT CRITICAL"

"Othello"

Japanese block prints demand admiring looks of approval from Norma Wallace and Peggy Begeal.

"PUT MONEY IN THY PURSE"

"Othello"

U-E's Technical Club operates a concession stand in the library during basketball games.

"AND WHEN I OPEN MY LIPS, LET NO DOG BARK"

"The Merchant of Venice"

The debate class listens attentively as Lois Rappaport and Avis Reines present their reply to the question under discussion.

"REPORT ME AND MY CAUSE ARIGHT"

"Hamlet"

The Press reporters, Pat Hopko, John Kelly, Paul Koutoukas, Jim Walker and Clyde Willis, prepare the week's articles for the Binghamton Press High School Page.

"APPETITE A UNIVERSAL WOLF"

"Troilus and Cressida"

Alan Baker helps himself to some juice while Joel Frey gives his money to Mr. Berry.

"THIS IS THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT"

"The Merry Wives of Windsor"

Dick Klotz, Jane VanDusen, and the rest of the solid geometry class study their propositions under the watchful eye of Mr. Goodnow.

"THE LABOUR WE DELIGHT IN"

"Macbeth"

These girls gain valuable secretarial practice under the guidance of Mrs. Roth.

"SPEAK LOW IF YOU SPEAK LOVE"

"Much Ado About Nothing"

Mary Emmons and Grace Monticello find time to place a very important phone call.

"AS MERRY AS THE DAY IS LONG"

"Much Ado About Nothing"

Miss Heffner, our community ambassador, presented a very interesting assembly talk and showed slides.

"I AM NO ORATOR, AS BRUTUS IS"

"Julius Caesar"

Robert Butchko conducts a meeting of the U-E Senate.

"LET YOUR OWN DISCRETION BE YOUR TUTOR"

"Hamlet"

Mr. John D. Smith, an Endicott attorney and Mr. A. R. MacAlmon, Director of Apprentice Training for IBM, present helpful information at a career conference.

"WHAT'S DONE IS DONE"

"Macbeth"

The boys in Mr. Paolucci's mechanical drawing class seem absorbed in seeing that things are done.

"I'LL SPEAK IN A MONSTROUS LITTLE VOICE"

"Love's Labor Lost"

Paul Koutoukas appears to have captured the attention of the entire drama class with his speech.

"I'LL TELL THE WORLD!"

"Measure for Measure"

Marion Baron appears poised as she presents her speech in public speaking class.

"ARE YOU GOOD MEN AND TRUE?"

"Much Ado About Nothing"

Mr. Paolucci directs Roger Dyer, John Creston, Ray Fahringer, and Angelo Ferro in the proper methods of running projectors.

"A MERE ANATOMY"
 "The Comedy of Errors"

A laboratory proves to be an interesting place for these biology students as they examine preserved specimens.

"HE IS WELL PAID THAT IS WELL SATISFIED"
 "The Merchant of Venice"

Representatives to Girls' and Boys' State this year are: First row, left to right, David Stevens, Joyce English, Carol Podest; Charles Bradt; second row, Michael Colella, Jack O'Brien, Patrick O'Brien, Michael Beirne, Thomas Cullen.

"I MUST HAVE LIBERTY"
 "As You Like It"

The "I Speak for Democracy" contestants this year were: First row, Tina Starikov, Marilyn Gumble, Barbara Kowalewski; second row, (the winners) Avis Reines, first place; Lois Rappaport, second place; Richard Greet, third place; third row, George Mudry, James Warner, Walter Szachara.

"HOW FAR THAT LITTLE CANDLE THROWS HIS BEAMS"
 "The Merchant of Venice"

Theresa Monaco receives the 1954 American Legion award from Commander Floyd Walters of Post 82.

"I HAVE NO OTHER BUT A WOMAN'S REASON"
 "The Tempest"

Miss Vogelsgang's fourth-period "C. P." class diligently studies the natural superiority of women.

"GIVE US A TASTE OF YOUR QUALITY"

"Hamlet"

Mayor Parkhurst and Mr. Wildman watch as Jan Knickerbocker tests the quality of the old U-E bell.

"IF WE DO MEET AGAIN, WHY,
WE SHALL SMILE"

"Julius Caesar"

U-E's new teachers gather to discuss the trials and tribulations of the first day of school.

"EVERY WAY MAKES MY GAIN"

"Othello"

Mr. Klett smiles his approval at Richard's work in machine design.

" 'TIS A KIND OF GOOD DEED"

"King Henry VIII"

Greg Foreman appears skeptical at the information given to him by Carol Thomson while Pat Havrilka watches amusedly.

"KNOWING I LOVED MY BOOKS . . ."

"The Tempest"

Mrs. Roberts listens to the old excuse, as Carolyn Petrak explains why her books are late and Dick Youmans, Jim Dryer, Joe Stevens, and Rudy Statney wait to sign out for new ones.

"AND WE'LL NOT FAIL"
"Macbeth"

This year's new Senators solemnly pledge to carry out their duties as they are sworn in by president, Mike Beirne.

"FRIENDS, ROMANS, COUNTRYMEN, LEND ME YOUR EARS"

"Julius Caesar"

Mike Beirne, Carol Podest, Sue Murray, and Joe Funari, under the guidance of Mr. Agone, presented a broadcast at WENE during National Education Week.

"THERE IS A METHOD IN'T"
"Hamlet"

Mr. Norris demonstrates the proper methods in making coat racks.

"BETTER THREE HOURS TOO SOON"
"The Merry Wives of Windsor"

Pupils crowd to the ticket window before a football game to make sure they see the opening kickoff.

"THERE'S A TIME FOR ALL THINGS"
"Comedy of Errors"

Miss Thompson and Mr. Kaskey find time to pick up their mail.

"UNQUIET MEALS MAKE ILL DIGESTIONS"

"The Comedy of Errors"

These senior girls present a scene of organized confusion in the cafeteria.

"METHOUGHT I HEARD A VOICE CRY 'SLEEP NO MORE!'"

"Macbeth"

George Evan enjoys a few minutes of sleep in study hall.

" 'TIS NO TIME TO TALK"

"King Henry VI"

Mr. Popelka makes certain that the library is a quiet place to study.

"SUIT THE ACTION TO THE WORD,
THE WORD TO THE ACTION"

"Hamlet"

The sophomore cheering try-outs show us their best form and smiles.

"FIGHT TILL THE LAST GASP"

"King Henry VI"

Joyce English and Mike Beirne, candidates for school president, meet at the election booth to cast their ballots.

Behind the scenes of any production, are rosin and makeup, the prompter and the stage manager, ballet shoes, dressing rooms, and the well-worn scripts. But there is also a special feeling of excitement and spontaneity behind the scenes, and we at U-E have captured this feeling in our snaps of "behind the scenes" life.

Advertisements

Few plays survive without the aid of advertising stands
And no "Thesaurus" ever thrives
Without its business "fans."

"All who have meditated on the art of governing mankind have been convinced that the fate of empires depends on the education of youth."

Farewell

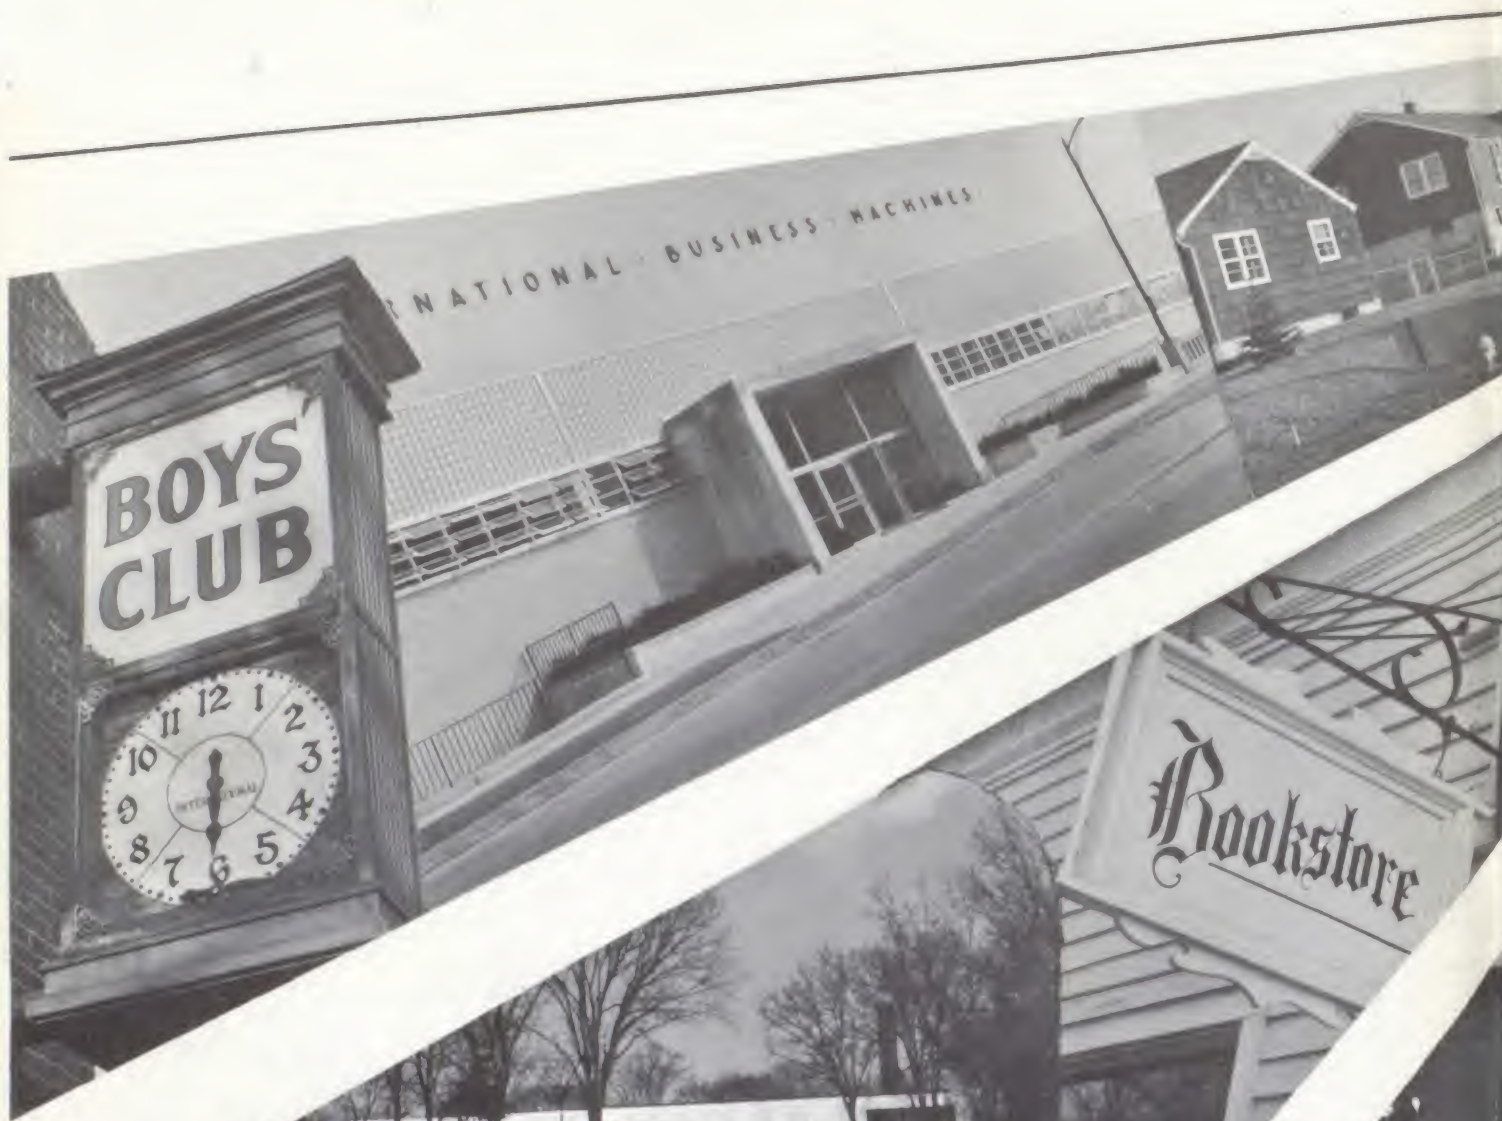

"All is well ended" in our little drama of the work and play of school. The curtain closes with a flourish on these scenes—so precious to us—of learning, sports events, good friendships, and happy times. As we proudly take our last curtain call before you, the audience, and plan for other dramas in the future, we know that "All's well that ends well"; and we echo Shakespeare's words, "Your gentle hands lead us and take our hearts."
